The ICRA Scholarship Fund, implemented in 2003, pays the registration for those ICRA members who may not have the opportunity to attend the National Cancer Registrars Association (NCRA) annual meeting. The NCRA Annual conference will be held April 6-9, 2022 in Washington, DC.

The award covers the early bird NCRA member rate conference registration fee only, and there may be more than one scholarship award given depending upon the fund balance at the time of the drawing. Annually, during the first ICRA Board of Director meeting, the winners are drawn and notified immediately following the Board meeting.

Scholarship Requirements:

- Must be a standing member of ICRA, you do not have to be a CTR to be eligible for the scholarship
- Write a feature article in the spring issue of the ICRA “Indiana Abstract Newsletter”
- All applications must be postmarked by January 1, 2022

To apply please complete and mail the Scholarship Application form and submit by January 1, 2022, via US MAIL to the ICRA Ways and Means Chairperson.
