ICRA Education Information

Hello ICRA members! I hope you've had a great start to 2024 and are enjoying this spring-like weather this week 🌼 I am working on coming up with some topics (and a date) for my Q1 webinar, but in the meantime, I wanted to send out some resources for the 2024 changes. Below are links to different webinars that have already taken place, all of which were very informative, as well as links to the updated manuals. I have also included links to be added to distribution lists for different sites that regularly provide great education to us. I hope you all find it as useful as I do. As always, if you have any ideas for me to present on, please share them. And, if you have any questions, reach out – I am happy to help!!
